

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE SUMMER SESSION

THE LOCATION OF THE ENGLISH SCHOOL AT BREAD LOAF INN WITH REFERENCE TO THE LONG TRAIL OF THE GREEN MOUNTAIN CLUB

→ Sky-Line Trail completed continues north from this point to Mt. Mansfield.

→ From Middlebury to Lincoln is a large area of Battell Forest Preserve, one of best wooded tracts in U. S.

→ Emily Proctor Lodge one of the best camp sites on the trail.

→ Sky line Trail north from Middlebury Gap is all completed.

→ Middlebury is the best "CENTRAL GATEWAY" to the Long Trail

→ The English School is less than three miles from the entrance to the Long Trail.

→ Lodge built the past year by Middlebury Section of Green Mt. Club.

→ Trail south from Pleiad Lodge is complete only as far as Worth Mt.

→ Trail Building to be completed in this vicinity by Middlebury section this fall.

→ This point is about due east from Lake Dunmore

→ In this section an old trail, now pool is at foot of mountains, later being carried to sky line

→ Excellent view from cliff, Brandon Gap

→ Rutland section is improving trail south of Brandon Gap.

→ Drawn by and published through courtesy of Mr. C. Cooper, president Green Mt. Club.

The Couching Lion (Camel's Hump), Mansfield, Smuggler's Notch, and Sterling to the North.

Killington, Shrewsbury, and Equinox to the South.

COME TO THE ENGLISH SCHOOL PREPARED FOR THE MOUNTAIN HIKEs AND CAMPING PARTIES ON THE LONG TRAIL